

Patrick MacGill Summer School 18th July to 24th July – Live Web Broadcast

The 2010 Patrick MacGill Summer School is being held in the Highland hotel, Glenties from Sun July 18th to Sat July 24th. In 2009 the MacGill Summer School's theme was "the Economy and what went wrong." Glenties and the Summer School became the centre of political and media attention for the week. This year's theme is "Reforming the Republic – issues of politics, economics and accountability."

In order to present the Summer School to the widest possible audience, Donegal County Council in co-operation with the MacGill Summer School and Eircom will webcast the entire week's debates live. That's 65 speakers over the 7 days. All webcasts will be viewable on the www.donegalcoco.ie website. Details of times of debates and webcast will be available on www.donegalcoco.ie and www.macgillsummerschool.com
